

Accessibility Statement

This website is run by Llancarfan Community Council. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We have also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible is this website?

- We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible:
- you cannot modify the line height or spacing of text
- some PDF documents are not fully accessible to screen reader software
- you are unable to skip to the main content when using a screen reader

What to do if you cannot access parts of this website

If you need information on this website in a different format like accessible PDF, large print, easy read, audio recording for example, please contact us and we will consider your request and get back to you in 15 working days.

Reporting accessibility problems with this website

We are always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems that are not listed on this page or think we are not meeting accessibility requirements, please contact the clerk.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No.2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you are not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Llancarfan Community Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

This website is currently partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 AA standard, due to the non-compliances listed below.

Non-accessible content

The content listed below is non-accessible for the following reasons.

Non-compliance with the accessibility regulations

This website fails on all 4 Principles:

- This website fails at being Perceivable due to issues with image alternative text and colour contrast. See WCAG 2.1 success criterion 1 (Perceivable).
- This website fails at being Operable due to issues with navigation and keyboard accessibility. See WCAG 2.1 success criterion 2 (Operable).
- This website fails at being Understandable due to issues with labels and consistent navigation. See WCAG 2.1 success criterion 3 (Understandable).
- This website fails at being Robust due to issues with responsiveness on other devices. See WCAG 2.1 success criterion 4 (Robust).

Disproportionate Burden

Not applicable.

Content that is not within the scope of the accessibility regulations

Not applicable.

What we are doing to improve accessibility

The Council is in the process of commissioning a new website where any outstanding accessibility issues will be addressed.
